Join up, join up....

Are you keen to be part of the Custard Apples Australia community, which is a not-for-profit, member-owned organisation? Acquiring a corporate membership with Custard Apples Australia provides funds to invest in our industry and programs, including government liaison.

Eligibility and requirements

Under Custard Apples Australia Constitution:

- A Corporate member is a business that has an interest in the custard apple industry, which could include businesses such as packing sheds, marketers, distributors, retailers, processors, or suppliers of goods and services. A Corporate Member has no voting rights.
- Corporate Membership is applied for online and is $330 for the 2026 calendar year. Corporate Membership renewals will fall due on 1 January. For new Corporate Members joining throughout the year, the membership fee is pro-rated monthly.
- It is the corporate businesses' responsibility to log-on to 'Members Area' of the website, if any company membership information requires updating. Simply go to the 'My Profile' section to make any changes.
- Becoming a member not only means we will support your business as much as possible, but that we expect the same in return, and that you or your representatives will act in a manner that furthers the objectives of Custard Apples Australia.
- If you or your representatives conduct yourself in a way which is unbecoming of a Custard Apples Australia member, or which is injurious to the character of the Custard Apple Association, your membership may be terminated. First, we will give you written notice and give a full and fair opportunity to present your case, after which a decision will be made by the Management Committee.
